

Coreen S. Smith

Certified Nurse Practitioner

Center for Reproductive Medicine, St. Paul & Minneapolis, MN

April 2015-present

- Provide infertility care to female and male patients
- Complete detailed history and physicals on new patients as well as order and interpret screening and diagnostic tests.
- Perform and interpret both abdominal and transvaginal pelvic ultrasounds for evaluation of uterus and ovaries. This includes measuring endometrial lining and follicles for superovulation and ART cycles. Perform and interpret saline infused hysterosonogram.
- Provide detailed teaching to patients for superovulation, IUI, IVF, frozen embryo transfer and donor egg cycles.
- Manage superovulation cycles with oral medication. Co-manage superovulation with injectable medication, IVF, frozen embryo transfer and donor egg cycles.
- Complete FDA specific history and physicals and diagnostic ultrasounds on potential egg donor patients.

Inver Hills Community College, Inver Grove Heights, MN

January 2015-December 2015

- Provide nursing education in the area of skills lab, simulation lab, nutrition and obstetrics to nursing students.
- Communicate with students in a constructive manner to facilitate learning.
- Write learning objectives, assignments and validation requirements.
- Collaborate with nursing facility in order to provide a holistic nursing education.
- Responsible for maintaining a NCLEX pass rate above national standards.

Planned Parenthood of Illinois, Aurora, IL

May 2005-July 2014

- Provide comprehensive gynecological health care including preventive screening, gynecological problems, sexually transmitted infection diagnosis and treatment, menopausal care and contraceptive management.
- Carry out in office procedures including: colposcopy with biopsy, endometrial biopsy, vulvar biopsy, LEEP, intrauterine device insertion and removal, Implanon/Nexplanon insertion and removal and treatment of genital warts.
- Provide medical abortion including assessment for ectopic pregnancy, perform and review both pregnancy and post medication abortion ultrasounds and monitor for medication abortion complications.
- Responsible for patient follow up for abnormal labs and potential malignancy.
- Offer male genital urinary health care, mainly sexually transmitted infection diagnosis and treatment.
- Assist in training of reproductive healthcare associates and evaluation of proficiencies.
- Teach RN, APN and medical students as a family planning clinic preceptor
- Act as an expert for my colleagues in the area of abnormal pap/colposcopy management and treatment.

Advanced Womens Care Center, Elk Grove Village, IL

July 2005-December 2010

- Provide comprehensive gynecological and obstetric healthcare including evaluation, treatment and diagnosis of women throughout the lifespan.
- Co manage patients with high-risk pregnancies such as insulin dependent diabetes, advanced maternal age, pregnancy induced hypertension, multiple gestations, and clotting disorders.
- Offer limited ultrasound including obstetric ultrasound for dates, AFI and fetal position and gynecological ultrasound for follicle studies.
- Evaluate and offer treatment in infertility including diagnostic blood work, hysterosalpingogram, intrauterine insemination and medication treatment with Clomid.
- Provide primary care evaluation, diagnosis and treatment of common medical problems such as hypothyroidism, hyperlipidemia, upper respiratory infections and skin conditions.
- Complete in office procedures including colposcopy with biopsy, endometrial biopsy, vulvar biopsy, intrauterine device insertion and removal, Implanon/Nexplanon insertion and removal, post-op staple and suture removal, pessary fitting, debridement and care of post-op wound infections, and treatment of genital warts.
- Responsible for rounding on post-op and postpartum patients as well as completing in hospital ob/gyne consultation.
- Act as first surgical assistant in cesarean sections and abdominal, laparoscopic and vaginal gynecologic surgeries.
- Manage the in office laboratory and well as responsible for maintaining CLIA certification.
- Provide training to and co manage the office medical assistants.

Northwest Community Hospital, Arlington Heights, IL

July 1999-July 2005

- Worked as an RN in the maternal infant department, with focus in antepartum and intrapartum nursing.
- Initial nursing position was as an RN on the postoperative unit, with main focus on abdominal surgery.

Education

University of Illinois at Chicago

August 2001-May 2005

Master of Science in Nursing

Purdue University

August 1994-May 1999

Bachelor of Science in Nursing

Licensure and Certification

State of Minnesota: Registered Nurse, Advanced Practice
Registered Nurse

Board Certified Women's Healthcare Nurse Practitioner

Basic Life Support

DEA licensure

Professional Organization Memberships

NPWH

ACOG